exam is in oral form, provides language translation and commentary of the texts mentioned above. Students not attending an alternative program may agree with the teacher.

A student from the basic course that in view of the authorization to teaching Latin intends to support more than two mandatory exams in Latin (and thus exceed the 12 credits in the field L-FIL-LET/04 Latin language and literature) will:

- 1 - take a written test of translation from the Latin, the written test can be argued from the first year of the course and does not expire.
- 2 - make contact with the professor in charge of the third (and possibly fourth) Latin exam to arrange an additional program.
